Highlights

Strategic Market Position | The Property is located within the Hawk View Industrial Park, a master-planned 320-acre development at the heart of the Permian Basin committed to serving oil and gas infrastructure service operators. The surrounding tenancy by complimentary operators ensures long-term locational commitment and security. The Park is located within a dense oil and gas-focused industrial market with convenient logistical access to the City’s primary thoroughfare - Interstate 20.

Critical Use Facility | The Property serves as Tenant’s critical manufacturing and supply facility serving Midland-Odessa and west Texas. The Property is Tenant’s sole facility exclusively serving oil and gas operators of the Permian Basin. Both the building and land are 100% useable with significant groundwork done to accommodate Tenant’s operations, further lending to the critical nature of the facility.

Landlord-Favorable Lease Structure | The Lease provides a passive lease structure, with 100% tenant reimbursement for all operating expenses including Insurance, Taxes, and Common Area Maintenance. Additionally, the lease provides two, five-year renewal options with fixed 10% rental escalations, hedging inflationary risk and incentivizing tenant renewal.

High Growth Texas MSA | Midland is located between two of the top five fastest growing metro areas in the nation and is positioned above the Permian Basin – the largest oil reserve in the United States. The Midland-Odessa MSA continues to exhibit steady population growth trends above the national average.

Income Tax-Free State | Texas is one of seven U.S. states that do not impose a tax on earned personal income.

Midland, Texas

Location Overview

Midland is the county seat of Midland County in west Texas. Midland has a population of 153,768 making it the twenty-eighth most populous city in the state. It is also the hub of the Midland-Odessa Combined Statistical Area which has an estimated population of 348,391. It is located along I-20 and is generally considered the halfway point between El Paso and Fort Worth in Texas.

Midland is known for its downtown skyline and is nicknamed “The Tall City.” For many years, the downtown district housed the tallest buildings between Fort Worth and Phoenix. Midland’s development was fueled by several energy booms and has long been a hub for Texas oil and gas activity.

Recently, the expansion of the Permian Basin oilfields has once again helped accelerate growth in the area. Midland is a major focal point for the play due to its location geographically and the pre-existing infrastructure in and around the city.

Odessa is a city in and the county seat of Ector County, Texas, with a small portion of the city extending into Midland County. Odessa has a population of 129,928 making it the 31st-most populous city in Texas. It is the principal city of the Odessa, Texas Metropolitan Statistical Area.

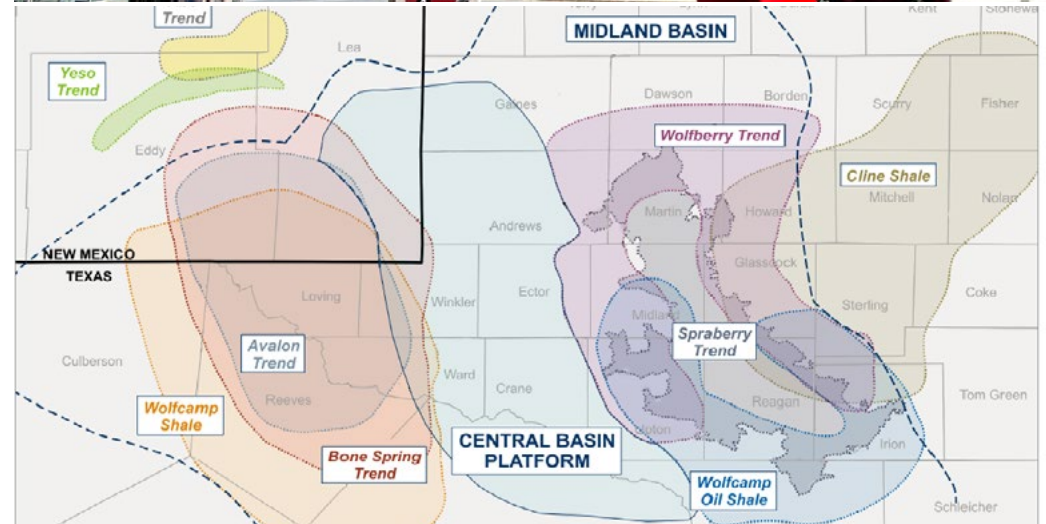

Midland and Odessa are two of the 10 fastest-growing metro areas in 2018; Midland was first, with 4.3% growth. Odessa was fifth, with 3.2% growth.

Permian Basin • Texas & New Mexico

As one of the oldest and most widely recognized oil and gas producing regions in the United States, the Permian Basin covers approximately 86,000 square miles and encompasses 52 counties in New Mexico and Texas. It spans almost 250 miles east and west and 300 miles north and south. Unlike other plays across the country, the Permian Basin is unique due to its complex geology and contains several sub-basins each with its own characteristics. As of July 2021, there were 424 operating rigs across the Permian Basin, over half of all operating rigs in the United States. The area also led the country in rig count growth and the expansion of horizontal drilling in the area has made it the number one focus of unconventional activity in the United States.

In February 2021, Nasdaq reported domestic oil was trading at $61 per barrel, one of the highest points since the pandemic hit the U.S. in March 2020. Prices were on a steady incline since the beginning of February which started at about $52 per barrel, records show.

The Permian will produce over 500 barrels per rig next month, according to the agency's Drilling Productivity Report.

Investments in Permian Basin oil and gas operations continued to grow as a national energy company announced it acquired assets in the Delaware Basin near the Texas-New Mexico state line. U.S. Energy Development Corporation said it purchased interests in the Shetland development project in Eddy County, New Mexico and the WarWink project in Winkler County, Texas. Shetland included 14 producing oil wells and six proposed wells expected to go into production by the middle of 2021. The WarWink purchase had two oil wells expected to also produce in mid-2021.

These projects followed U.S. Energy's spending of more than $100 million in new projects in the past year, and the company intends to continue seeking acquisitions in the Permian Basin through 2021.

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate license holders to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

11-2-2015

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
  - o that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
  - o that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
  - o any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
